

REGISTRATIONS NOW OPEN

SWAN VALLEY, WESTERN AUSTRALIA
11-18 APRIL 2026

What is OneCamp?

OneCamp will bring together everyone from Joey Scouts to Rover Scouts to discover new interests and opportunities for personal growth. Meet new friends and tackle adventurous, fun, challenging and inclusive activities.

All participants from Joey Scouts to Rover Scouts will camp together in OneCamp Units, supported by adult Leaders. OneCamp Units will camp together, eat together, tackle activities together, and support wellbeing together. OneCamp Units will be grouped together to form OneCamp Villages.

It is expected between 1,700 and 2,200 people will take part in OneCamp.

Attending OneCamp from Interstate

OneCamp 2026 has been endorsed by Scouts Australia and is open to all Scouts around Australia.

There are no State contingents for OneCamp 2026. Interstate participants will need to organise their own travel to and from Perth. Transfers between Perth Airport and the event campsite are included in the event fees.

Interstate participants will be accommodated within a OneCamp Unit.

OneCamp organisers can also put in you contact with other participants from SA.

The Program

OnceCamp will feature nine epic on-site activity zones, evening entertainment for all ages and full-day adventure activities held off-site.

Multi-day expeditions are available for Venturer and Rover Scouts.
